GOVERNMENTAL RELATIONS/EMPLOYMENT

Richardson Plowden's Governmental Relations and Employment Practice Group provides clients with knowledgeable representation before numerous governmental entities, regulatory boards and commissions. In this arena, experience is critical in understanding the nuances of both the law and the oversight entities so that the best, most appropriate course of action is taken to achieve the desired outcome. Legal counsel can involve strategy development and implementation, representation before a specific entity, legal challenges on complex regulatory or procedural matters, as well as defense representation. Our attorneys regularly represent state and national clients in these arenas:

- Administrative and Regulatory
- Employment Law
- Schools
- Election Law
- Legislative/Governmental Relations
- Workers' Compensation Defense
