Richardson Plowden Attorneys Named “Super Lawyers”

COLUMBIA, S.C., May 4, 2009 - - Richardson Plowden & Robinson, P.A., is pleased to announce that three of its attorneys, Francis M. Mack, Eugene H. Matthews, and Franklin J. Smith, Jr. have been selected to the 2009 South Carolina Super Lawyers.

Super Lawyers is a national listing of outstanding lawyers from more than 70 practice areas who have attained a high degree of peer recognition and professional achievement. The magazine is published in all 50 states and features articles about attorneys named to the Super Lawyers list. The publication is used as a supplement in leading newspapers and magazines across the country and is distributed to all attorneys in the state or region.

Mack is the managing shareholder of Richardson Plowden and focuses his practice on complex commercial litigation in the areas of construction, contract disputes, fidelity and surety law, and insurance defense matters. Mack is a certified arbitrator and listed in Best Lawyers in America for business litigation. He is a member of the American Bar Association, South Carolina Bar, Richland County Bar Association, South Carolina Defense Trial Attorney’s Association, and the American Society of Mechanical Engineers. He earned his Master of Science degree in engineering from the University of South Carolina (USC) and his juris doctor in 1982 from USC School of Law.
